

Graduate Summer Internships – 2008

The UC Davis Washington Program provides summer fellowships (also sponsored by the UC Office of the President) for graduate students from a variety of departments who are interested in and would benefit from a summer internship in Washington, DC. Past graduate summer interns have come from departments as diverse as Economics, Sociology, Human Development, Political Science, Art, Physics, Agricultural Engineering, International Agricultural Development and the Law School.

Application Deadline: March 3, 2008

Stipend

There is a $3,500 stipend for 10-week period starting in June 2008.

Eligibility

Washington, D.C. Summer Graduate Internships are open to graduate students (Master's, Ph.D. and professional degree) from all departments and graduate programs.

The criteria for eligibility are:

- Applicant must be a full-time graduate student in good academic standing who has completed at least one year in his/her graduate program and is returning for study in the fall.
- Applicant must research, identify, and be offered a substantive internship located in Washington, D.C. metropolitan area with an organization/agency that is congruent with his/her academic and career goals before any stipend will be awarded. An internship offer, although helpful, is not required at the time of application. It is the sole responsibility of the applicant to independently obtain an internship relating to his/her field of interest. Program staff is available if assistance is needed.
- A report on the internship is due in the UC Davis Washington office by October 1, 2008. Individual departments determine whether a student receives academic credit and the requirements for doing so.

Application Procedures

Applications and further information are available on the UC Davis Washington Program web page – <http://washingtonprogram.ucdavis.edu>. The application deadline is March 3, 2008. Awards will be announced in April 2008.
