

Washington Spring Internship #32

Congresswoman Linda Sanchez

Hi Students

As Joaquin pointed out I mixed up the Congresswomen Sanchez's. This internship is with Linda NOT Loretta Sanchez. While I have not had students intern there, this looks like a good opportunity, especially if you follow her interests.

Here is a little about her:

Congresswoman Sánchez is the first Latina in history to serve on the Judiciary Committee. She is the first woman to serve as Chair of the Subcommittee on Commercial and Administrative Law, and she also sits on the Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship, Refugees, Border Security, and International Law. The Judiciary Committee considers civil and criminal judicial reform, civil liberties, constitutional amendments, and immigration and naturalization. It also has jurisdiction over the U.S. Department of Justice as well as federal aid to local law enforcement.

Be sure to let me know if you apply. Thanks. - sl
