

Washington Spring Program Internship #34

Center for American Progress

Hi Everyone

The Center for American Progress still has internship openings in their economic policy division, Middle East division, as well as their speech writing dept. I suggest you review their website, www.centerforamericanprogress.org. They offer substantive internships. All past Davis students who have interned at this organization, regardless of the dept they worked in, gave this internship a "strong recommendation." If you are still seeking an internship and these areas appeal to you, please email me your cover letter and resume. Address your cover ltr to Erin Green, Internship Coordinator. Time is of the essence so please send me your materials by Friday so I can fwd them on. Thanks. - sl
